

PERFORMANCE LEVELS EXPLAINED

State Performance Levels are determined by the district/school's current status and change. Each state indicator has a different reference chart and data set.

Blue is the highest performance category and is always denoted by five shaded portions.

Green is always denoted by four shaded portions.

Yellow is always denoted by three shaded portions.

Orange is always denoted by two shaded portions.

Red is the lowest performance category and always denoted with one shaded portion.

